List of Additional Educational Technologies and Users

Developed by: Eric Kyle, Matt Stockfeld
June 2016

The following is a list of technologies that are being used by staff and instructors here at the college. If you are interested in learning more about one or more of these, please contact the listed user.

Note: None of the technologies in the table below are officially supported by the college. Additionally, the users that are listed may not be able to provide support for each technology and have varying levels of competency with the technologies that they are listed with.

Technology	Users
Shadow Health Virtual Patient – virtual patient simulation software	Alice Kindschuh, Susie Ward
Jing – free screen capture software	Emily McIllece
Wix – free ePortfolio website	Harsha Sharma, Linda Foley
Turnitin – software that offers plagiarism checks	Stephanie LaPuma
SPSS – quantitative analysis software	April Horstman Reser
The Point – resources to support healthcare education	Susie Ward
Social Media generally (e.g, FaceBook, Twitter, etc.)	Dylan Hartnett
Elsevier/Evolve – resources to support healthcare education	Karen Johnson
NVivo – qualitative research software	Susie Ward
Typhon Clinical Tracking – student tracking system for clinicals, etc.	Alice Kindschuh
McGrawHill CONNECT platform – resources for classes	Harsha Sharma
Prezi – online presentation website	Jody Woodworth
Star12 training – provides On Demand webinars on many different topics related to professional development in the workplace	Cathy Beck
Turning Point Clicker System	Jackie Hoeft
Quizlet – online flashcard, quizzing, etc.	Jeanine Kernen

If you feel that a piece of educational technology that you are using should be supported by the Educational Technology Department and/or the Center, please contact either Matt Stockfeld (matt.stockfeld@methodistcollege.edu) or Eric Kyle (eric.kyle@methodistcollege.edu).

Thank you for your understanding!